

1987 NCAA FOOTBALL

On the cover: Holy Cross' Gordie Lockbaum enters this 119th season of college football as Division I-AA's leader in scoring and versatility. Lockbaum, who last season made headlines for his all-round play on offense, defense and specialty teams, led the division in scoring with a 12.0 per-game average, finished third among all-purpose rushing leaders with 197.5 yards per game and tied single-game records for points (36) and touchdowns (6). The senior tailback and cornerback averaged 91 plays a game for the 10-1 Crusaders in 1986 en route to being selected to the all-Eastern College Athletic Conference offensive and defensive teams and being named the conference's most valuable player.
